DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS
FOR LACK OF PERSONAL JURISDICTION
AND IMPROPER VENUE

9 MORLEY TATRO, D/B/A CAMBRIDGE LSAT

10 Defendant

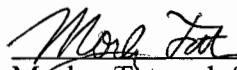

11 TO EACH PARTY AND TO THE ATTORNEY OF RECORD FOR EACH PARTY IN THIS
12 ACTION:

13 YOU ARE HEREBY NOTIFIED THAT before the Honorable Judge Mark A.
14 Kearney, Defendant Morley Tatro d/b/a Cambridge LSAT ("Cambridge LSAT") will move this
15 Court for an order dismissing the Complaint filed by Law School Admission Council, Inc.
16 ("LSAC") for lack of personal jurisdiction and improper venue pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil
17 Procedure 12(b)(2) and (3).

18 This motion shall be made on the grounds that the Court does not have personal
19 jurisdiction over me and this Court is an improper venue because I am a nonresident of the State
20 of Pennsylvania. This motion will be based on the points and authorities included herein.

MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITY FOR DEFENDANT'S
MOTION TO DISMISS FOR LACK OF PERSONAL JURISDICTION AND IMPROPER VENUE

10 Defendant

11 INTRODUCTION

12 This lawsuit should be dismissed pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure
13 12(b)(2) and 12(b)(3). LSAC alleges that Cambridge LSAT infringed and infringes copyrights
14 owned by LSAC. At the time these acts allegedly occurred I was not a resident of the State of 15 Pennsylvania. I have never been a resident of the State of Pennsylvania, and I have not 16 established minimum contacts with Pennsylvania such that the Court could exercise personal
17 jurisdiction over me. Thus, personal jurisdiction is lacking, and this Court should dismiss
18 LSAC's lawsuit against me/Cambridge LSAT.

19 Similarly, LSAC's lawsuit against Cambridge LSAT should be dismissed because 20 the Eastern District of Pennsylvania is an improper venue for this action. If an action is filed in 21 an improper judicial district, the court may dismiss the action upon timely objection or, in the

-- DISMISS FOR LACK OF PERSONAL JURISDICTION AND IMPROPER VENUE - 1

1 interest of justice, may transfer the case to a district where the action could have been brought.
2 28 U.S.C. §1406(a). Venue in copyright litigation is proper in any judicial district where a
3 defendant would be amenable to personal jurisdiction if the district were a separate state.
4 Defendant is not amenable to personal jurisdiction in this district because Defendant does not
5 have the requisite minimum contacts with the district. Further, in consideration of the relative
6 means of the parties, on the one hand Cambridge LSAT, a small one-person business and on the
7 other hand, LSAC, a multimillion-dollar national corporation, the venue of the Eastern District of
8 Pennsylvania is inappropriate. It is therefore appropriate to dismiss the action under Federal Rule
9 of Civil Procedure 12(b)(3). In the alternative, the case should be transferred to the Central
10 District of California, where Defendant resides.

11 FACTS

12 Upon information and belief, LSAC is a Delaware corporation. Upon information
13 and belief, LSAC's principal place of business is in Newtown, Pennsylvania. On September 18,
14 2015, LSAC sued Cambridge LSAT in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. LSAC alleges that 15 Cambridge LSAT infringed LSAC's copyrights in certain LSAT Materials in violation of the 16 Copyright Act.

17 Cambridge LSAT is a d/b/a of a sole proprietorship of mine, with its principal
18 place of business in Burbank, California. Cambridge LSAT is and has always been a California
19 business entity with its principal place of business in California. I have never had an office,
20 address, or telephone number in Pennsylvania. I have never owned or rented any property in 21 Pennsylvania. I have never paid taxes in Pennsylvania. I have never held a bank account in

1 Pennsylvania. I have never traveled to Pennsylvania in connection with any transaction involving
 2 LSAC.

3 ARGUMENT

4 The case should be dismissed because this Court does not have personal
 5 jurisdiction over Cambridge LSAT. When a nonresident defendant files a motion to dismiss for 6 lack of personal jurisdiction, the plaintiff bears the burden of establishing that the Court can
 7 exercise personal jurisdiction over that defendant. Mattel, Inc. v. Grenier & Hausser GmbH, 354
 8 F.3d 857, 862 (9th Cir. 2003). Federal courts do not have jurisdiction over a nonresident
 9 defendant unless the nonresident defendant has purposefully established “minimum contacts”
 10 with the forum state and the exercise of jurisdiction comports with “fair play and substantial
 11 justice.” Burger King Corp. v. Rudzewicz, 471 U.S. 462, 475-76 (1985); World-Wide
 12 Volkswagen Corp. v. Woodson, 444 U.S. 286, 291-92 (1980); International Shoe Co. v.
 13 Washington, 326 U.S. 310, 316 (1945). Failure to satisfy any of these standards would deprive a
 14 defendant of due process of law. Omeluk v. Langsten Slip & Batbyggeri A/S, 52 F.3d 267,270
 15 (9th Cir. 1995). Because I do not have the necessary minimum contacts, it would be a violation
 16 of due process for this Court to exercise jurisdiction over me.

17 Additionally, the evidence indicates that Defendant did not have the requisite
 18 minimum contacts to establish general jurisdiction:

- 19 • I am, and always has been, a legal entity of the State of California.
- 20 • I have my principal place of business in Burbank, California.
- 21 • I have never had an office, address, or telephone number in Pennsylvania.

22 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITY FOR DEFENDANT’S MOTION TO
 -- DISMISS FOR LACK OF PERSONAL JURISDICTION AND IMPROPER VENUE - 3

- I have never owned any real estate or other assets located in Pennsylvania.
- I have never paid taxes in Pennsylvania.
- I have never held a bank account in Pennsylvania.

In summary, my contacts with Pennsylvania are insufficient in both type and number to support general personal jurisdiction over Defendant.

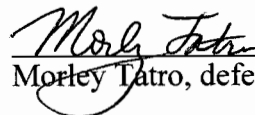

ARGUMENT FOR TRANSFER IN THE ALTERNATIVE

LSAC's selected venue would pose an undue hardship for me, as I support my family in California and I am the primary earner in my family. Having to litigate out of state and represent myself puts a tremendous onus on me, while litigating out-of-state poses no special obstacles for LSAC. LSAC has already hired a national law firm to act on its behalf and can conveniently conduct its activities outside its primary state of business. The documents it seeks in discovery reside in California, and, should it elect to depose me directly, I would be unduly inconvenienced by out-of-state depositions. In contrast, LSAC has vastly superior resources at its disposal to continue business operations while pursuing its action, whether or not in Pennsylvania.

CONCLUSION

I ask this Court to grant this motion and dismiss LSAC's lawsuit. In the alternative, I ask the Court to transfer the action to the Central District of California where I reside.

Dated this 28 of October, 2015.

[PROPOSED] ORDER GRANTING DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO DISMISS FOR LACK OF
PERSONAL JURISDICTION AND IMPROPER VENUE - 1

1
2 GOOD CAUSE APPEARING THEREFORE, the motion of Defendant Morley
3 Tatro d/b/a Cambridge LSAT ("Defendant") to dismiss the complaint for lack of personal
4 jurisdiction and improper venue is hereby GRANTED. The Court lacks personal jurisdiction, as
5 Defendant does not have the required minimum contacts with the forum state. The venue is
6 improper insofar as Defendant is a nonresident of Pennsylvania, and litigation in the State of
7 Pennsylvania would pose an undue burden on him. Thus, granting the request is in the best
8 interest of the Court. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(2) and 12(b)(3), the 9 lawsuit should be dismissed. The motion is hereby granted.
